LITANY OF HEALING
FROM KAREN ALFORD IN TOGO

Leader: You are our Helper and our Healer, O God. Today, we bring before You all the ways we need to be healed.

People: We bring broken hearts and spirits that cry out to You. We bring physical bodies that are hurting.

Leader: We bring the pain of broken relationships and broken families. We bring our addictions and our fears; our desire for control and our preconceived ideas of what healing is.

People: We need Your healing, O Lord. Your healing is the only one that lasts.

Leader: God of Healing, we confess that we sometimes turn away from the grace and healing You would give us and instead try to do it ourselves.

People: We need Your healing, O Lord.

Leader: You are the true Healer in this world and the next.

People: Help us accept Your healing in whatever form it comes, O Lord.

Leader: Help us to share Your healing grace with others. May we have the courage to share all that You do for us.

All: Heal us, O Lord. Amen.

LITANY OF JUSTICE
FROM ELKET RODRIGUEZ (BASED ON ISAIAH 43 AND MICAH 6:8)

Leader: “I am about to do a new thing,” says the Lord. God will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. Fear not, for God has redeemed you.

People: God has called us by name. We are God’s children.

Leader: The raging rivers will not sweep over you. You shall walk through fire and not be consumed. You are precious in God’s sight.

People: We are precious and called.

Leader: We are witnesses of God’s grace and God’s love. And we are called to share that love with all we meet.

People: We are called to act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with our God.

Leader: Open our hearts, O Lord, that we may welcome people from other places.

People: Open our eyes, O Lord, to see the new things that You are doing.

Leader: Open our ears, O Lord, that we may hear a word from You.

People: Open our hands, O Lord, that we may be generous and work for justice.

Leader: Open our minds, O Lord, to see others in a new way. Amen.
